NPP TO ANNOUNCE POSITION ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO GHANA'S CONSTITUTION

The New Patriotic Party (NPP) wishes to inform the general public, its members and all stakeholders that the Party is set to announce its official position on the proposed amendments to the 1992 Constitution of Ghana, as set out in the Government's Position Paper dated Thursday, 30 July 2026.

As part of the national process, the Party was formally consulted and made submissions to the Constitution Review Committee (CRC) which then presented its report to Government. Subsequently, Government issued a Position Paper setting out its responses to the CRC's recommendations.

Consistent with the NPP's commitment to inclusive and consultative decision-making, the Party's Constitutional and Legal Affairs Policy Committee has undertaken a detailed review of both the CRC report and the Government's Position Paper. The party's committee has since prepared the NPP's position paper following an analysis of the two documents.

The NPP's position paper will now be submitted to the Party's Presidential Candidate, Dr. Mahamudu Bawumia, and the National Executive Committee (NEC) for consideration and adoption.

Thereafter, the NPP will communicate its official position on the proposed constitutional amendments to the Ghanaian people.

The NPP remains committed to a transparent, inclusive and orderly constitutional review process that protects Ghana's democracy, strengthens our constitutional institutions and advances the country's political stability, and development in freedom.

SIGNED:

Kojo Oppong Nkrumah (MP)
Chairman, NPP Policy Co-ordination Committee
